OCTOBER 2011

NEXT MEETING: General Membership Meeting - Reuben Gold Thwaites award, Board elections, speaker Sharon Cook discusses the shipwreck of the Lady Elgin - Monday, October 3, 7:00 pm, Beulah Brinton Center, 2555 S. Bay Street.

Bay View Historical Society to Receive Wisconsin Historical Society's Highest Award

BY RON WINKLER

The Bay View Historical Society is the 2011 recipient of the Wisconsin Historical Society's prestigious Reuben Gold Thwaites Trophy. Michael Stevens, State Preservation Officer with the Wisconsin Historical Society, will make the presentation at the BVHS membership meeting on Monday, October 3, at 7:00 pm at the Beulah Brinton Center, 2555 S. Bay Street. Bay View's elected representatives at all levels of government have been invited. The event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

The trophy is the Wisconsin Historical Society's highest recognition of distinction and is awarded annually to a "historical society for continued excellence for its overall service to its community over a period of at least five years." Historical societies are eligible to receive the award every 25 years. The Bay View Historical Society received the award 25 years ago, seven years after the society's inception, and is the only society to be awarded the trophy a second time. The award is a traveling trophy that the society can display for a year. A certificate accompanying the trophy will be on permanent display at the Society.

Reuben Gold Thwaites was born in Dorchester, Massachusetts, and attended Yale University. He moved to Wisconsin and served as managing editor of the Wisconsin State Journal from 1876 to 1913 and was secretary and superintendent of the Wisconsin State Historical Society from 1886 to 1913. Thwaites edited numerous documents on Wisconsin history and wrote books on history and travel in Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota and Iowa. A champion of historical preservation, Thwaites encouraged local communities to establish their own historical societies. The trophy that bears his name was first awarded in 1958 to the Marathon County Historical Society.

In 1986, Bay View Historical Society President Betty Pum accepted the Reuben Gold Thwaites Trophy from H. Nicholas Muller III, Director of the Wisconsin State Historical Society.

There will be a lot happening at the October 3 Membership Meeting - Don't miss it!

BY NANCY TAWNEY

The October 3 Membership Meeting of the Bay View Historical Society will be a very interesting evening that you won't want to miss.

In addition to the BVHS receiving the Reuben Gold Thwaites Award from the Wisconsin Historical Society, elections for the Board of Directors - the people who will provide the Society's leadership for the next year - will be held. Information about the candidates can be found on page_ of this issue.

Finally, Bay View resident Sharon Cook will give a fascinating account of the 1860 shipwreck of the Lady Elgin. Taking on the persona of her ancestor, Lady Elgin passenger Jane Cook, Sharon will recount the events of this noted Lake Michigan tragedy.

ENJOY THE MUSIC OF LIL' REV AND LARRY PENN

Midwestern traveling musician and storyteller Lil' Rev and singer-songwriter Larry Penn will perform an afternoon concert at the Beulah Brinton House on Packers bye-week Sunday, November 27, at 2:00 pm. Refreshments will be served at the performance, and a free-will offering will be taken.

Plan to attend this entertaining event at the Beulah Brinton House, 2590 S. Superior Street. To learn more about Lil' Rev or purchase his latest CD, Around the Campfire, visit lilrev.com.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

BY NANCY TAWNEY

For a good part of the summer, the Beulah Brinton House yard was once again transformed with an installation of the Bay View Observatory. This joint project with Discovery World and students from Bay View High School was an excellent display of Bay View history, as well as that of other parts of Milwaukee. Many people commented on how much they liked visiting the Observatory and learning more about our past.

In addition to the viewers enjoying this ambitious exhibit, the student participants who designed and built it were given a very memorable introduction into the joys of historic inquiry and study. It is heartening to know that a new generation has begun this pursuit. Projects such as the Observatory are central to the Bay View Historical Society's mission of conserving, celebrating and sharing Bay View' rich heritage. We are grateful to all who worked so hard to make the Bay View Observatory a reality.

Pre-Order Ron Winkler's Bay View and Pick Up Your Copy on December 12th

Ron Winkler has written a history of Bay View for Arcadia Publishing's Images of America series, and now you can pre-order your very own copy complete with photo archive! The 128-page text is packed with over 200 photographs, maps and illustrations from BVHS archives and numerous private collections never before published.

Beginning with a historical overview of the neighborhood, the book covers Bay View's early pioneers, steel mill, churches and schools, 'Little Italy', highways and byways, as well as recreation and entertainment of the era.

The book will be published in December. Books are $21.99 each, and may be picked up on Saturday, December 17th at the Beulah Brinton House between 1:00 pm and 6:30 pm. For $25, the book will be sent to you via mail. All profits from the book's pre-order will benefit the Bay View Historical Society.

Please make checks payable to the BVHS. Pre-order forms must be received by December 1.

Southwestern Border Walk Wrap-up

BY RON WINKLER

The Bay View Historical Society's 2011 August Walk featured the Southwestern Border, an area outside of the original Village of Bay View. The walk, which was open to the public, was led by tour guides Ron Winkler and Greg Wernisch on Saturday, August 6th. The Society sponsored the walk to help Bay View residents and visitors gain an appreciation of the history, architecture and lifestyle in the southwestern corner of Bay View. Bay View was originally part of the Town of Lake, created in 1838. The Village of Bay View was formed in 1879, and when it joined the city of Milwaukee in 1887, Milwaukee's southern border became Oklahoma Avenue. Over the years, the remaining Town of Lake land was added to the city of Milwaukee (except for the area that incorporated as the City of St. Francis). The Southwestern Border is bounded by Oklahoma Avenue on the north, Morgan Avenue on the south, the Lake Parkway

This is the view looking south from the intersection of 3rd Street and Holt Avenue in 1930.

Avenue between Humboldt Park and 6th Street. Bitter battles were fought between the Town of Lake and Bay View's alderman Paul Gauer to annex Town of Lake land. The town residents wanted to become part of the city to obtain the amenities enjoyed by their Bay View neighbors. When these areas were annexed piecemeal between 1922 and 1929, they became part of Milwaukee and Bay View. The Southwestern Border has some old farmhouses that date back to the late 19th century, but most of the homes were built after 1925. The majority are duplexes, bungalows and Tudor revival homes, along with a generous sprinkling of Colonial revival and Mediterranean homes.

There were a number of churches (Unity Lutheran, Chapel of the Cross Lutheran, Lutheran Church of the Great Spirit, United Church of Christ, St. Luke's Episcopal), schools (Humboldt Park and Fritzsche) and businesses (Nordberg, Prasser/Klecza Funeral Home, Nash/American Motors/Chrysler) on the tour. The walk started at 9:30 am at Unity Lutheran Church, 1025 E. Oklahoma Avenue. Participants saw the inside of the church and heard about the congregation's outreach in Bay View from Pastor Kevan Penvose. The walk concluded at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 3200 S. Herman Street, with a tour and refreshments hosted by BVHS members Joan and Gus Luetzow.

THANK YOU!

Donna Pogliano generously hired a painter to have the Beulah Brinton house exterior painted this fall.

The outside of the house has a fresh coat of white paint and it looks wonderful our most heartfelt thanks to you, Donna!

AND ANOTHER THANK YOU!

The Bay View Historical Society would like to thank the owner of Jim's Garage Door Repair, Jim Kupferschmidt, for donating his services to the Society. Jim donated and installed a new garage door opener at the Beulah Brinton House. We encourage members to take note of the businesses that generously donate their materials and skills to help in restoring the Beulah Brinton House. If you are in need of garage door repair services, we hope you'll call Jim's Garage Door Repair at 414-643-0500. A list of all contractors that donate their services to the Society is on our website. Please patronize our local businesses that give back to our community.

In this year the organization shall sponsor and conduct the regional ~~convention~~ meeting over which the president shall preside. The president or the appointed delegate may attend the three scheduled and any special meetings of the Advisory Committee of the Council that year as a voting member thereof. During membership on the Advisory Committee and thereafter, he/she shall be eligible to election as a state officer of the Council.

ARTICLE IX. AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amending of Bylaws

These bylaws may be amended, after board approval, by a two-thirds vote of members present at any regular meeting or special meeting called for the purpose, or by a mail-in or email vote. Any amendment must be submitted in writing to the membership a minimum of 30 days prior to the vote or presented for an announced open discussion at the meeting prior to the vote on the amendment.

Section 2. Committee on Bylaws

The board shall establish a ~~standing~~ committee on bylaws, rules, and procedures with one member of the committee from the board of directors and no more than five on the committee.

ARTICLE X. INFORMATION

Section 1. Benefits to Members

a. A copy of the current bylaws and of the articles of incorporation shall be available to members on the website or by ~~who~~ request ~~them~~ from the secretary.

b. Copies of the current and past bylaws and of the articles of incorporation shall be placed in the Society's archives ~~in the Hewellyn Library~~ at the Society's headquarters.

Section 2. Minutes of Meetings

Copies of minutes of all meetings of the Society and of the board of directors shall be available on request from the secretary after sixty (60) days following the meetings. Copies shall be placed also in the Society's archives ~~in the Hewellyn Library~~ at the Society's headquarters.

BVHS to Vote for Board Members October 3

BY LESLIE BACHHUBER

Three new Board Members will be elected by the BVHS membership at its General Meeting on October 3 to serve three-year terms. A one-year position will also be filled. Following are the candidates selected by the Nominating Committee.

Susan Ballje is an educational consultant. She has a wide variety of experience as a teacher, lecturer, director and coach and also has skills in event planning and writing. Susan is honored by her nomination to the board and enthusiastic about helping further our mission. She has been a board member for both the state and local American Association of University Women.

Mary Fisher, a charter member of BVHS, looks forward to becoming more active in the Society. As part of her commitment to Bay View, Mary has been involved in community organizations such as the Neighborhood Association, Immaculate Conception Church and the Shamrock Club.

David Reinelt is a local resident who values the work of the Historical Society in "sharing the history of Bay View." He grew up near the Beulah Brinton House and would like to be part of its restoration. David has an engineering degree and has remodeled his own home, giving him experience that will be very helpful. Additionally, he has served on the board of Rufus King High School Alumni Association.

Stephanie Harling, who is completing a term on the Board and served as Vice President, will run to fill the one-year position. Stephanie is a lifelong resident of Bay View, served previously on the BVHS Board and is currently chair of the House Committee. She also was President and Board Member of the Bay View Neighborhood Association, Advisory Council Member of the Beulah Brinton Community Center, Committee Member of the South Shore Farmers' Market and is a member of the Bay View Garden and Yard Society.

BVHS heartily thanks the following people who have completed their terms:

Kathy Mulvey, who served two years as President and one year as Secretary, and Greg Wernisch, who served on the House Maintenance Committee, was Secretary for a year and represented BVHS at State Historical Society events.

In addition, BVHS soon will need a new Treasurer. Mike Krolick retired from his position as branch manager at the Bay View M & I Bank. He will stay with BVHS until the end of the year, but then will retire from the Board, leaving two years on his second term as Treasurer.

BVHS welcomes your participation in our various committees. Help is always needed and valued. Please consider running for the Board in the future. If you or someone you know is willing to serve, please contact Leslie Bachhuber, chair of the Nominating Committee, at lesbach@aol.com, or 294-4377.
